Committee Reports:

Trap – This is the last week of shooting. Six teams are interested in shooting in a winter league. The fall league party is Thursday, December 21st. Shells will be purchased before the end of the year when prices are predicted to rise.

Archery – Dave Stanke will again purchase ten new 3D targets at a show in January. The winter league meetings are Monday, January 1 and Wednesday, January 3. The leagues begin shooting the following week.

Rifle – Things are going well. Sight-in days brought in $6,384.25 profit this year. The range is looking beautiful! Seventy-nine workers will receive work credit for their donation of time. The work cards will be mailed.

Juniors – The league has twenty-two shooters this fall. Crystal Reynolds has qualified for the Junior Olympic match in Colorado. The club has agreed to help cover her expenses with a donation of $500.

Pistol – Matches have started. The air exchange unit is not working properly again.

Building & Grounds – Things are going well! A coffee maker has been purchased. A cheap VCR will be hooked to the surveillance camera to see if that will work.

Winterfest – tickets are being printed at Badgerland this week. They will be mailed with a letter asking members to purchase some tickets and see some to their friends.

Sportsman's Raffle – The tickets will be mailed shortly after the first of the year.

Old Business:

On December 14 from 6:00-8:00 PM, there will be a DNR/WI Wildlife meeting at the downtown Brown County Library to discuss public access to land.

Pictures will be taken of projects in progress.

We are waiting for materials to arrive for the addition to the indoor range room.

Wayne Thyssen has donated an 18 foot garage door.

New Business:

The Brown County Alliance is again selling trees to raise funds.

Snowplowing will be done by Gary J. Basten Construction, Inc. at the same rates as last year.

Wings Over WI is having an event. The club will be donating shirts, hats and two memberships to be raffled off.

Eric and Brenda are engaged!

The club will purchase a used table saw from Dugre for $100 to keep on the premises.

The keys have not been returned by the members resigning from the board of directors.

A work day will be needed before Winterfest. A list of tasks will be prioritized prior to that day.

Juniors need to clean the banquet room after their Thursday night league.

A motion to adjourn was made by Dugre and 2nd by Petrouske. The motion was carried.
